Dear Senator Williams:

May I urge that you protest the death sentence on the South Korean democratic leader, Kim Dae-jung, by supporting U.S. action against the repressive regime of General Chun Doo-hwan.

The present regime does not qualify for military aid, F16 planes, trade + tariff improvements, as it is using these for martial law purposes.

Please put pressure on South Korea to save this courageous democratic leader, Kim Dae-jung, and other who are being persecuted while we support their government.

Sincerely,
Shirley Lack
